In olden times men prided themselves upon their fine linens. It was a mark of good breeding and in keeping with the equirements of genteel society.

The present-day men recognize the advantages of good appearance and are very careful in their shirt selections -for nothing is of greater importance than the negligee shirt in the attire of the smartly dressed Summer man.

Mrs. Cornella Spencer, wife of Herbert L. Spencer, was arrested on the Pike yesterday afternoon on a charge of disturb-ing the peace. She was taken to the World's Fair Police Station and locked up. At a late hour last night she had not been released. At a late hour last hight she had been released.

It is said that Mrs. Spencer went to the Irish Village to see her husband, from whom she is separated, and with whom she had tried to effect a reconciliation. Mr. Spencer is a member of the orchestra in that show, and his wife, not being permitted to see him, is said to have sent him several notes begging him to come out and see her.

When he did come out she is said to have created a disturbance, which finally caused the management of the village to call for Detectives McGarth and Kane. They arrested her and took her to the police station, where she was locked up.

Cleburn, Tex., July 2-Property valued at $300,000 was destroyed by fire this morning in the Santa Fe shops. Forty minutes after the flames were discovered, three buildings built of stone, were in ruins and everything they contained was lost.

The buildings comprised the coach shop, paint shop and planing mill. In addition to this, seven passenger coaches were reduced to ashes.

Fresh proof is furnished daily that a path to recovery has been opened before the hitherto hopeless victims of locomotor ataxia, the pains of which are probably the most agonizing which the human frame is ever compelled to endure.

Mr. C. E. Janvin of Hampton Falls, N. H., was attacked about three years ago by what he at first thought was rheumatism. He got temporary relief from liniments, but the trouble always returned with greater severity. After he had endured it for more than a year, he began to consult physicians in great anxiety. The machines will be publicly burned, it is said, some time next week in accordance with a statutory provision to that effect. For the last two weeks Sheriff Hencken has been busy making the rounds of saloons where the machines had been installed and, despite political pressure that was brought to bear, selzed them and had them hauled to Clayton.

It is said that the machines were originally owned by a St. Louis business man who, fearing the result of the Sneriff's activity, sold them at what seemed a sacrifice to several St. Louis County citizens.

PRIEST VICTIM OF FRAUD. Alleged Book Agent Gets Checks Amounting to $22.65.

A young man representing himself as an agent for the Dodd Mead Publishing Company of New York secured checks for Steven P. Huber of the St. Vincent De Paul's Church several weeks ago, and it is said converted them to his own use. He had Father Huber sign a contract for the delivery of several books.

The checks were made payable to the publishing company and when they were returned from the bank it was found that they had been changed to be made payable to bearer. This aroused the suspicion of Father Huber and he complained to the publishing company, who informed him that he was a victim of a fraud.
